The facts seem to be briefly Society, three times, and was invested with these: The lad had formerly been employthe Cross of the Legion of Honor in Au- ed by Mr. Walker, though not now in his gust, 1874, for services rendered during the service, and on the day in question went yellow fever plague of that year, in Mem- into Mr. W's barn, and in the presence of his children, took a handful of tobacco, and left; Mr. W., not knowing he had of the clubs will be sent to postmasters taken it till he had got some little distance, followed after and called to the lad to stop, which request, or command-as the case may be-was not complied with, and the rusge barn and hid the tobacco and denied having it to Mr. W., who thereupon assaulted him in a most brutal and savage manner, inflicting serious injuries upon his person, with the possibility of losing one of ed after the lad and offered to settle with personal damages. No one claims that the boy did not take property that did not belong to him, but the value taken was too small to justify a resort to extreme measures. All law abiding citizens regret the occurrence, and will be satisfied with nothing short of a thorough investigation, and will see that equal and exact justice is meted out to the parties.

Savbrook, Feb. 13, 1877. LINDENVILLE. Eds. Tel .- As the small-pox is so prevaent in Wayne at this time, perhaps the least that you can learn from us will be the most acceptable. At this date the terrible disease is confined to three familiesthose of Mr. Lyman H. Fobes, Edward Bladen and Frank Niles; at Mr. Fobes' 5 children are reported sick; 1 at Mr. Bladon's and 2 at Niles'-where there is a large family of small children exposed. The family is the most destitute of any in town -owning no home, and are now living in est val a small hav-barn belonging to Mr. S. A. Obadiah Meacham, assault and battery. PARKEE'S GINGER TONIC.—The most useful medicine ever presented to the public. This active and efficient remedy is the certain cure for Diarrhoza, Dysintery, Choicra Morbus, Cramps, Choic, Dysperia, Sasa Ziomach, Heart-burn, and Flatulence, and at the same time imparts vigor to the stomach, improves the appetite and alds digestion. To the nervous invalid and the incidence, it is not the greatest value; its soothing and sustaining power on the nervous system will enable any to reform, who would otherwise fail from nervous prostration and want of strength. Travelers farmers, and others exposed to inclement weather, should always carry it with them; It protects the body from cold and the effects of variable climate and diet. It is unsequaled as a tonic in recovery from fevers and exhausting sickness and it is especially valuable to the aged and feeble. We feel confident that after a trial of this remedy no person will ever want to be without it.
